

Due to varying specifications, laws, and regulations across different countries, the same Sherwin-Williams paint may exhibit slight differences in color. At 802 Cabinetry, we strive to match each paint color as closely as possible, but a 100% exact match may not always be achievable. Please be aware that there may be minor color variations.

802 Cabinetry is not liable for any discrepancies regarding custom paint colors. Reference images are provided for each color, and we recommend following Sherwin-Williams' paint specifications for the best results.
